

Dear Physician:

The Nashville Electric Service Critical Referral Program identifies customers who rely on electrical, life-sustaining medical devices. During an extended outage situation, the Critical Referral List is distributed to emergency management agencies to provide assistance to these NES customers.

It is imperative that only those people who depend on electrical equipment be included on the list. For this reason, we have asked your patient to forward this document to you for review and consideration. This patient has granted NES access to this information under the terms of HIPPA regulations.

Please return this document to custrelstaff@nespower.com or the mailing address:
